Former Nassau Exec Curran Endorses Democrat Jon Kaiman for North Hempstead Town Supervisor

Curran says Democrat Kaiman “always put people – not politics – first”

Former Nassau County Executive Laura Curran endorsed Democrat Jon Kaiman in his campaign to return as North Hempstead Town Supervisor.

Former County Executive Curran stated, "I am proud to endorse Jon Kaiman for Town of North Hempstead Supervisor. Jon is a steady, proven leader who has consistently proven he has the vision to improve the quality of life in all the Town's communities."

Of Democrat Kaiman, Curran continued, "He also has a strong record of fiscal discipline, and a cast-iron commitment to reining in wasteful spending. There's a reason Jon's opponents are running scared and lying about his record. They know that Jon has earned the trust and respect of the Town's residents, and that he will always put people – not politics – first."

Democrat Kaiman previously earned endorsements from U.S. Senator Kirsten Gillibrand, New York State Comptroller Tom DiNapoli, former Member of Congress and Nassau County Executive Tom Suozzi, the New York League of Conservation Voters, the Sierra Club, the Planned Parenthood of Greater New York Political Action Committee, The Long Island Federation of Labor (“LI Fed”), AFL-CIO, the Laborers International Union of North America (“LIUNA”), The North Atlantic States Regional Council of Carpenters (“NASRCC”) and Local 338 RWDSU/UFCW.

In his effort to return as North Hempstead Town Supervisor, Democrat Jon Kaiman leads a North Hempstead Town Democrat ticket that includes: current Town Council Member Veronica Lurvey for Receiver of Taxes, Town Council Members Mariann Dalimonte and Peter Zuckerman and Town Council candidate Christine Liu.

A trusted, tested and experienced public servant who is an innovative and common-sense problem-solver, Democrat Jon Kaiman offers a new vision on how to approach town government. He brings real experience and produced real results. After working in state and county government, Kaiman brings a whole new breadth of experience that allows him to build on his vast knowledge on how the Town of North Hempstead should work for its residents.

Kaiman previously served as a District Court Judge, Town of North Hempstead Supervisor for five terms (2004-2013) including devising and implementing its 311 Call Center and Project Independence for its senior population, chair of the Nassau Interim Finance Authority (NIFA), led the state’s response to Superstorm Sandy and currently is Deputy County Executive in Suffolk where as co-chair of the Police Reform and Reimagine Task Force, Kaiman worked with police, community advocates, legislators, union leadership and the public to reach an overall consensus on how the Suffolk Police Department, the 12th largest police department in the country, could better serve the entire Suffolk County community, producing one of the most comprehensive police reform plans in the State of New York with buy-ins from the community and the PBA and chaired the county’s Opioid Task Force and co-chaired the Police Commissioner Search Committee. Also, Kaiman has launched Suffolk’s 311 Call Center, implemented a county-wide municipal service sharing program to reduce costs, created a Suffolk School recycling program and developed projects that address climate change, including electric vehicle charging stations and projects collecting power from wind and solar.
