US Senate Majority Leader Chuck Schumer Endorses Democrat Jon Kaiman for North Hempstead Town Supervisor

Schumer calls Democrat Kaiman “an exemplary public servant whose name is synonymous with excellence in public service”

Democrat Jon Kaiman received the significant endorsement of United States Senate Majority Leader Chuck Schumer in his campaign to return as North Hempstead Town Supervisor.

“It gives me great pride to endorse an exemplary public servant whose name is synonymous with excellence in public service: Jon Kaiman,” stated Majority Leader Schumer. “In every job he has taken on, including North Hempstead Supervisor, Democrat Jon Kaiman demonstrated effective, efficient, and open governance.”

Majority Leader Schumer continued, “Jon impressed me with success in implementing and growing vital town programs to better the lives of residents, including Project Independence for our seniors, and the first-on-Long Island 311 call system for constituent services. Jon Kaiman brings an unparalleled record of achievement – experience and know-how that’s needed now more than ever. I look forward to once again working closely with Jon Kaiman to make a difference for the residents of the Town of North Hempstead.”

In his effort to return as North Hempstead Town Supervisor, Democrat Jon Kaiman leads a North Hempstead Town Democrat ticket that includes: current Town Council Member Veronica Lurvey for Receiver of Taxes, Town Council Members Mariann Dalimonte and Peter Zuckerman and Town Council candidate Christine Liu.
